

BOOK WEEK 2026

My Story Symphony

YEAR 1 ENGLISH - STORY ELEMENTS

Name: _____

Date: _____

Learning Intention

I can identify story elements and put important events in order.

Australian Curriculum V9: AC9E1LE01

Story Elements Work Together

Every story has people or animals, a place, and events that happen in an order.

CHARACTER

Who?

SETTING

Where?

EVENTS

What happens?

Worked Example: Leo's Quiet Bell

Leo carries a small bell into the library. First, he shakes it loudly. Next, the librarian points to the quiet sign. At the end, Leo wraps the bell in his scarf and chooses a book.

Character: Leo

Setting: the library

Beginning: Leo rings the bell.

Put the Events in Order

Write 1, 2 and 3 in the boxes.

[] Leo chooses a book.

[] Leo shakes the bell.

[] The librarian points to the sign.

READ, FIND AND SEQUENCE

The Moonlight Music

Zara finds a silver flute in Grandma's garden shed. At first, no sound comes out. Zara wipes the dusty flute and tries again. A soft tune floats through the garden. A sleepy possum peeks down from a gum tree. Zara smiles and plays one last note.

1. Find the Story Elements

Character: _____

Setting: _____

2. Beginning - Middle - End

Draw or write one important event in each box.

BEGINNING

END

I Can

- ☐ find a character and setting
- ☐ put events in the right order
- ☐ tell the beginning, middle and end

Parent Tip

After reading, ask your child to tell what happened first, next and last. Let them point to pictures before writing.

ANSWER KEY AND TEACHING SUPPORT

Answer Key

Page 1 - Leo's Quiet Bell

Correct sequence:

1. Leo shakes the bell.
2. The librarian points to the sign.
3. Leo chooses a book.

Page 2 - The Moonlight Music

Character: Zara (main character; the possum also appears)

Setting: Grandma's garden shed / garden

Beginning: Zara finds the flute. Middle: She cleans it and makes a soft tune. End: Zara smiles and plays one last note.

Teacher Tip

Read the story aloud once for enjoyment and again for sequencing. Encourage oral retelling with first, next and last before students draw or write.

Curriculum Note

Main alignment: AC9E1LE01 - discuss how language and images create characters, settings and events. The Year 1 achievement standard also expects students to sequence ideas.
