Year 4 Writing - Persuasive Writing - Answer Key

For teachers, parents and tutors

Teacher Notes

Look for a clear opinion, logical reasons and at least one supporting example. Encourage students to avoid “because I like it” as the only reason.

Sample Response / Success Guide

Example: I believe Year 4 students should help care for the school garden. It teaches responsibility and helps everyone enjoy a greener school. For example, students could water plants during a weekly roster. This would make the garden healthier and help students feel proud.

What to Look For

Look for: clear purpose, organised ideas, topic vocabulary, full sentences, correct punctuation and at least one revision/improvement.

Parent Tip - At Home

At home, let your child persuade you about a fun choice, like Friday dessert. Ask for two reasons and one example before you decide.

Teacher Tip - In Class

Use a quick class vote. Students stand on an opinion line, then turn their spoken reason into a written persuasive sentence.
