Learning Intention

I am learning to blend sounds together to read consonant-vowel-consonant (CVC) words.

Success Criteria

- I can say each sound in a CVC word.
- I can blend the sounds to read the word.
- I can write a CVC word by listening to its sounds.

Sound It Out, Then Blend

Say each sound separately, then blend them together fast: c-a-t becomes 'cat'. Every CVC word has a consonant, a vowel, then a consonant.

Worked Example

Blend: p-i-g

Say each sound: /p/ /i/ /g/

Blend fast: pig

Part A — Warm Up

Blend the sounds: /s/ /u/ /n/ = _____

True or False: 'cat' has 3 sounds. _____

Circle the CVC word: cat jump play

Part B — Core Skills

Blend these sounds into words: /h/ /o/ /p/
= _____ /m/ /a/ /t/ = _____

Write the missing middle vowel: b_g (bag)
p_n (pin)

Write a CVC word that rhymes with 'hen'.

_____

Break 'dog' into its 3 separate sounds.

/___/ /___/ /___/

CVC Word Bank

cat • dog • sun • pig • hop • mat • bag • pin • hen • bed • cup • bus

Part C — Challenge: Packing a Bag

Sam is packing his bag for school. He packs a cap, a cup, and a pen.

Q8. Break each of Sam's 3 items into their separate sounds (e.g. cap = /c/ /a/ /p/).

Q9. Write one more CVC word for something else Sam could pack in his bag.

Q10. Sam's friend says 'cup' and 'cap' start with the same sound but end differently. Is this true? Explain using the sounds in each word.

Answer Key — Part A

A1: sun

A2: True — 'cat' has 3 separate sounds: /c/ /a/ /t/.

A3: cat

Answer Key — Part B

B1: hop, mat.

B2: bag (a), pin (i).

B3: Any CVC word rhyming with 'hen' (e.g. pen, ten, den) — teacher to check.

B4: /d/ /o/ /g/.

Answer Key — Part C

C8: cap = /c/ /a/ /p/. cup = /c/ /u/ /p/. pen = /p/ /e/ /n/.

C9: Any reasonable CVC word for a school item (e.g. bag, pen, mat) — teacher to check.

C10: True — 'cup' and 'cap' both start with the /c/ sound, but 'cup' ends with /p/ after the /u/ sound while 'cap' ends with /p/ after the /a/ sound, so their middle vowel sound is different, making the words different.
