Learning Intention

I am learning that the verb in a sentence must agree with its subject in number (singular or plural).

Success Criteria

- I can identify the subject and verb in a sentence.
- I can match a singular subject to a singular verb.
- I can match a plural subject to a plural verb.

One Does, Many Do

A singular subject needs a singular verb (The dog runs). A plural subject needs a plural verb (The dogs run). Watch out for tricky collective nouns like 'team' and 'group'.

Worked Example

Incorrect: The students walks to school.

Correct: The students walk to school.

(Plural subject 'students' needs plural verb 'walk'.)

Part A — Warm Up

Circle the correct verb: The cat run runs fast.

True or False: 'The children plays outside' is correct subject-verb agreement. _____

Circle the subject: The teacher explains the task.

Part B — Core Skills

Fix the agreement error: The birds sings in the morning.

Choose the correct verb: Each of the boys ____ (has / have) a bag. _____

Fix the agreement error: My friends is coming to my party.

Explain why 'The team is winning' uses a singular verb even though 'team' refers to many people.

Part C — Challenge: The School Newsletter Draft

A Year 6 student drafted a newsletter line: "The choir sing beautifully, and each of the students practice every week."

Q8. Identify both subject-verb agreement errors in the draft sentence.

Q9. Rewrite the sentence with correct subject-verb agreement.

Q10. Explain why 'each of the students' takes a singular verb even though 'students' is plural.

Answer Key — Part A

A1: runs

A2: False — it should be 'The children play outside' (plural subject needs plural verb).

A3: "The teacher" is the subject.

Answer Key — Part B

B1: The birds sing in the morning.

B2: has ("Each" is treated as singular).

B3: My friends are coming to my party.

B4: 'Team' is a collective noun treated as a single unit acting together, so it takes a singular verb even though it is made up of many people.

Answer Key — Part C

C8: "choir sing" should be "choir sings"; "each of the students practice" should be "each of the students practices".

C9: The choir sings beautifully, and each of the students practices every week.

C10: 'Each' refers to individual members one at a time, treating the group as separate single units, so it is grammatically treated as singular even though it refers to many students overall.
