LEARN IT - look, say and notice

Model: Opening names the topic. Middle gives two clear details. Conclusion reminds listeners of the main idea. Gesture, volume and pace help the audience.

Remember: Plan the message, rehearse it and use a visual only when it helps understanding.

A. TRY IT TOGETHER

1. Choose the best opening for a talk about bees.

2. Put opening, middle, conclusion in order.

3. Which voice helps listeners: clear volume or whisper?

B. MY PRACTICE

1. Write an opening sentence.

2. List two topic details.

3. Add one topic word.

4. Plan one helpful picture or object.

5. Write a concluding sentence.

C. I CAN DO IT

Plan and rehearse a 30-second presentation with three parts.

D. USE IT IN A REAL SITUATION

Prepare a short talk teaching the class one fact about a familiar animal. Include an opening, two details, a visual and conclusion.

E. CHECK AND EXPLAIN

1. What should listeners remember after your talk?

2. What did you improve after rehearsing?

MY LEARNING REVIEW

☐ I can do it. ☐ I need a little help. ☐ I need more practice.

I understood:

I found this difficult:

PARENT / CARER TIP

Let the child rehearse to one listener, who then repeats the main message.
