Year 1 English - Text Purpose and Organisation

Australian Curriculum v9 | AC9E1LA03

LEARN IT - look, say and notice

Model: A recount tells what happened in time order. A report gives facts under a clear topic. A story has characters and events.

Remember: The purpose helps the author choose the order and features.

A. TRY IT TOGETHER

1. Which text tells what happened: recount or report?

2. What usually comes first in a story?

3. Choose a useful heading for a facts page about frogs.

B. MY PRACTICE

1. Match purpose: story-entertain or inform?

2. Put recount words in order: finally, first, next.

3. Name one feature of a report.

4. Name one feature of an opinion text.

5. Explain why a recipe uses ordered steps.

C. I CAN DO IT

Plan a three-part text for one purpose: recount, narrate or inform.

D. USE IT IN A REAL SITUATION

A class needs to explain how seeds grow. Choose the best text type and plan its title and three organised parts.

E. CHECK AND EXPLAIN

1. Could the same topic be used for a story and a report? Explain.

2. How does order help the reader?

MY LEARNING REVIEW

☐ I can do it. ☐ I need a little help. ☐ I need more practice.

I understood:

I found this difficult:

PARENT / CARER TIP

Before reading, inspect the title and layout and predict the text's purpose.

Independent	Plan matches stated purpose.
Application	Informative/report structure with title and logically grouped facts.

TEACHER NOTES - what to notice

Success evidence: Identifies how familiar texts are organised for purpose.

Common difficulty: Choosing text type from topic alone rather than purpose.

Next step: Compare two texts about the same animal with different purposes.
