

Year 1 English | A Surprise in My School Bag

Who + action + relevant detail

Aussie Primary Academy | Writing Growth

Name: _____

Today I am learning

I can write a complete sentence that tells who, what happened and a useful detail.

Read the model

I found a small toy frog in my school bag.

Who? I. Action? found. Detail? a small toy frog.

Which sentence tells us more?

A. A frog.

B. I found a small toy frog in my bag.

Say why B is a complete idea.

Draw a surprise in your school bag.

Year 1 English | A Surprise in My School Bag

Say it, plan it, write it

Aussie Primary Academy | Writing Growth

Tell a partner your idea

Who opens the bag? What do they find? What detail helps us picture it?

Who?

Name your person.

Action?

What does the person do?

Useful detail?

What is the surprise like, or where is it?

Write one or two connected sentences.

Year 1 English | A Surprise in My School Bag

Read and improve

Aussie Primary Academy | Writing Growth

Compare

Before: I found a thing.

After: I found a tiny toy frog in my school bag.

What detail helps you picture the surprise?

My improved sentence

Check with a partner

☐ I tell who and what happened.

☐ My detail fits my idea.

☐ I tried a capital and ending punctuation.

☐ I read my sentence to check it makes sense.

New try: A surprise in a lunchbox

Hide the model. Say a new idea, then write a complete sentence.

Year 1 English | A Surprise in My School Bag

Teacher and parent guide

Aussie Primary Academy | Writing Growth

Curriculum and focus

Selected AC9E1LY06: creating and rereading short texts with correct simple sentences, useful vocabulary and sentence punctuation. One or two sentences are sufficient for this focused practice; this is not a whole-story assessment.

Answers and coaching

B names a person, gives an action and adds a detail. A is a noun phrase, not a complete sentence here. In the revision example, tiny toy frog replaces vague thing. Ask “Who did what?” then “Which detail matters?” Read instructions aloud as needed. The model is a simple sentence. A clear who-and-action idea matters more than sentence length.

Support and challenge

Support: orally rehearse “I found ___ in my bag.” Offer bag / toy / small / found if needed. Challenge: add a second connected sentence about the person’s reaction. Avoid adding adjectives that do not help meaning. Record adult prompting or scribing.

Observe and check transfer

Record: complete who/action idea; relevant detail; sentence boundary; rereading and one edit. Mark Not yet / With support / Independently. Use the lunchbox task without the model to check transfer. Accept any plausible or playful surprise. Child-friendly invented content is welcome; do not require the model answer.