

ACARA V9.0 — AC9E4LY09, AC9E4LY10 (Phonic and word knowledge: homophones and less common letter patterns)

Learning Intention: Students will identify, spell, and use words featuring -tion, -sion, and apply a strategy for remembering tricky spellings.

Pattern Focus

-tion and -sion both make the /shun/ sound at the end of a word. Most words use -tion; -sion often follows a word that already ends in a hard consonant sound like d or s.

- action station education celebration
- information creation decision television
- division explosion confusion mission

Parent/Teacher Tip: If your child isn't sure whether a word ends -tion or -sion, have them say it slowly — -sion often follows an existing s or d sound (confusion, decision), which is a useful first guess.

For teachers and parents: use this page to check student responses across both worksheet pages.
