Learning Intention

I can use conjunctions to join ideas and create clearer sentences.

Teacher Notes

Focus on whether the student can use conjunctions to join ideas and create clearer sentences. Encourage students to explain their thinking and check their work aloud.

Answer Guide / Sample Responses

Possible answers: because, but, so, when. Accept other logical conjunctions if the sentence makes sense and punctuation is correct.

Parent Tip - At Home

At home, ask your child to explain choices using because. Then ask them to change one answer using but or so.

Teacher Tip - In Class

Use sentence strips. Students physically join two simple sentences with a conjunction, then read the sentence aloud to check meaning.
