Curriculum Focus

Learning Intention

I can use punctuation to make direct speech and sentences clear.

Strategy

Read the example first. Say the words aloud, notice the pattern, then try your own sentence or word sort.

Mini Lesson

Direct speech shows the exact words someone says. Speech marks go around the spoken words. A capital letter begins the spoken sentence, and punctuation goes inside the speech marks. Clear punctuation helps the reader know who is speaking.

Vocabulary Helper

speech marks - punctuation around spoken words speaker - the person talking comma - punctuation often used before speech capital letter - begins the spoken sentence full stop - ends a sentence

Model Example

Correct: Mia said, "I found the map."

Another example: "Look at the clouds," said Noah.
