

BOOK WEEK 2026

My Story Symphony

FOUNDATION ENGLISH - STORY ELEMENTS

Name: _____

Date: _____

Learning Intention

I can notice the character, setting and main event in a story.

Australian Curriculum V9: AC9EFLE02

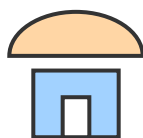

The Three Parts of Our Story Symphony

Just as music has different parts, a story has parts that work together.

CHARACTER

Who is in the story?

SETTING

Where does it happen?

MAIN EVENT

What important thing happens?

Worked Example: The Lost Drum

Mia takes her little drum to the park. A gust of wind rolls it under a bench. Mia finds the drum and plays a happy beat.

Character: Mia Setting: the park

Main event: Mia finds her lost drum.

Talk and Point

1. Circle the character in the example.

Mia

a dragon

a teacher

2. Put a tick next to where the story happens.

☐ the park

☐ the moon

☐ a classroom

My Story Symphony

READ OR LISTEN, THEN SHOW WHAT YOU KNOW

The Bird's Morning Song

Pip is a small blue bird. She sits in a gum tree beside the playground. Pip is too shy to sing. A friendly kookaburra sings first. Pip takes a breath and joins in. Their happy song fills the playground.

1. CHARACTER - Who is in the story?

Draw Pip in the box. You may label your picture.

2. SETTING - Where does the story happen?

Tick one.

☐ beside the playground ☐ at the beach ☐ in a kitchen

3. MAIN EVENT - What important thing happens?

Circle the best answer.

Pip joins the kookaburra and sings. / Pip cooks breakfast.

I Can

☐ name a character

☐ find the setting ☐ tell the main event

Parent Tip

After reading a picture book, ask: Who was in it? Where were they? What important thing happened?

My Story Symphony

ANSWER KEY AND TEACHING SUPPORT

Answer Key

Page 1 - The Lost Drum

1. Mia
2. the park

Modelled elements: Character - Mia; Setting - the park;

Main event - Mia finds her lost drum.

Page 2 - The Bird's Morning Song

1. Drawing should show Pip, the small blue bird.
2. beside the playground
3. Pip joins the kookaburra and sings.

Accept oral answers, pointing, circling or a labelled drawing. Correct spelling is not the focus of this activity.

Teacher Tip

Read each story aloud and pause to model the questions Who? Where? What happened? Encourage students to use the illustration they create and words from the text when responding.

Curriculum Note

Main alignment: AC9EFLE02 - respond to stories and share feelings and thoughts about their events and characters. The Foundation achievement standard also expects connections between characters, settings and events.