LEARNING INTENTION

I am learning to form lower-case letters correctly using the right starting point and direction.

WARM UP — AIR WRITE!

Use your finger to write these letters big and slowly in the air: a b c d e. Now write them here.

b

c

A — TRACE THE LETTERS

Trace each letter carefully. Start at the right place.

B — WRITE EACH LETTER 3 TIMES

Practise writing each letter in the big boxes:

l : _____

m : _____

n : _____

C — TRICKY LETTER PAIRS

These letters are often mixed up! Trace and write each one carefully:

b vs d

D — WRITE YOUR NAME!

Write your first name in lowercase letters as neatly as you can:

Now write it again even neater:

FUN REAL-LIFE ACTIVITY

Sand Writing! Pour sand or salt on a tray. Use your finger to write letters a to z. Can you write your whole name in the sand?

STUDENT REFLECTION

[] I start letters at the right place

[] I can form b, d, p, q correctly

[] I write letters neatly and clearly

TEACHER FEEDBACK

TIPS

Parent: Practise letter formation with shaving cream on a tray, chalk on the footpath, or finger painting on dark paper!

Teacher: Teach letter families together — c, a, d, g, o share a similar starting stroke. Use start, go, stop language.
