Name: _____ Date: _____

Learning intention

I can explain how to play a game using ordered steps and action words.

Learn from this example

How to Play Mirror Moves

You need: two players and a clear space.

1. Stand facing your partner with space between you.
2. Choose one leader.
3. Move your hands slowly while your partner copies you.
4. After five moves, swap roles.

Keep your feet still. The aim is to copy each move, not to win a race.

Writing detective

1. What do players need?
2. Which step tells players when to swap?
3. Why is the clear-space instruction useful?

Notice and explain

- A. Do it again.
B. Swap roles after five moves.
Which instruction gives enough detail?

Teaching sequence

Read and discuss the model, plan orally, then draft and revise. Split across sessions and adjust to the learner. Year 2 may write a shorter text or draw before drafting. Supply extra paper when needed. Models are examples, not scripts to memorise.

Answers and acceptable alternatives

Two players and clear space. Step 4 specifies after five moves. Space reduces bumping; feet stay still. Accept another explanation linked to safe play.

Notice task: B says what to do and when. A does not identify the action.

Support, challenge and coaching

Support: Teach a familiar game orally first. An adult writes key action words for reference.

Challenge: Test with a partner. Revise one instruction that the partner misunderstood.

Ask: Could someone follow this without you explaining extra rules?

Observe learning and check transfer

For each page 4 target skill, record Not yet / With support / Independently. Note adult prompting or scribing. Give one next step and let the child revise.

Later task: Teach a different simple game. Hide the model and check the same skill on a new task. Accept other responses that satisfy the criteria.

Curriculum scope
