LEARNING INTENTION

I know that texts come in many forms, like signs, books and screens, and I can say what they are for.

I CAN…

- ✓ name different kinds of texts
- ✓ say what a text is for
- ✓ make my own sign

SEE IT: WORKED EXAMPLE

Sign
STOP
Tells us what to do.

Book
A story about a koala.
Tells a story.

Screen
A weather app.
Shows us information.

TRY IT TOGETHER

1. What kind of text is it? Write sign, book or screen.
   a) EXIT on the door _____
   b) A story about a wombat _____
   c) A game on a tablet _____

2. Which sign belongs in a library? Tick one.
   ☐ NO SWIMMING ☐ QUIET PLEASE ☐ WATCH FOR CARS

DO IT

3. Sort the texts into the boxes. Write each one in the right box.
   STOP picture book website NO RUNNING dictionary video

Signs	Books	Screens

DO IT (CONTINUED)

4 Design a sign for our classroom or playground. Draw it in the box.

My sign says: _____

5 Why do we need signs? Finish: Signs help us because ...

CHALLENGE: THINK AND EXPLAIN

6 Where do you see texts at home? Write 2 texts and say what each is for.

7 You want to be safe at the pool. Would a sign or a book help you faster? Tell why.

Look Out! A text is anything we can read or look at to get a message. Signs and screens are texts too, not just books.

💡 Parent Tip: Go on a "text hunt" at the shops or in your street. Ask your child to point to signs and say what each one tells us.

🎯 My Term 1 Goal: This term I want to get better at _____

Name: _____ Date: _____

ANSWERS

1. a) sign b) book c) screen

2. QUIET PLEASE

3. Signs: STOP, NO RUNNING. Books: picture book, dictionary. Screens: website, video.

4. Open response. A good sign has few words, big letters and a clear message (for example WALK PLEASE).

5. Open response. Look for: tell us what to do, keep us safe, show us where to go.

6. Open response. For example: a cereal box (tells what is inside), a story book (tells a story), a TV guide on a screen.

7. A sign. Signs are short and quick to read. Accept any reasoned answer.

TEACHER NOTES

Common misconception: thinking only books are texts. Show signs, labels, menus and screens as texts.
Support: read each word aloud. Use real objects (a library book, a school sign, a tablet) to sort.
Challenge marking: Q5 to Q7 accept oral answers or drawing with a label. Look for a reason, not just a choice.
Australian Curriculum v9.0: AC9EFLA03 (Foundation review): understand that texts can take many forms such as signs, books and digital texts.
